
...for a police officer to have been removed and give his wife a chance to get quiet. She only left the two alone together a short time. The wandering and hysterical actions were still going on. When she saw the policeman, however, Mrs. Barfield clung to her husband and did not want him arrested.

Barfield was somewhat quieted by a suggestion that Barfield should leave the house. This he did, going down to the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Goebel. After the officer and Barfield left the house at about 1 o'clock, Mrs. Barfield grew somewhat more composed and went into the bathroom to get dressed.

Found Her Lying
In the bathroom.

Leaving her daughter there, apparently well except for her nervousness, Mrs. Bishop went across the street for a few minutes on business. When she returned she found her daughter lying on the floor of the bathroom unconscious and frothing at the mouth. Her eyes were open and staring upwards. She could not speak.

When help was obtained she was carried into the adjoining bedroom, undressed and put to bed. She died at 2 o'clock.

Dr. Vaughan, who arrived about 1:30 and worked over her for nearly an hour and a half, refused to issue a burial permit.

Barfield came in when his wife was dying, about 3 o'clock. He remained a short time, expressing his regrets, and then left again.

At the suggestion of Mrs. Bishop he was overtaken by Officer Asch and arrested.

While Mrs. Bishop will advance no theory to account for her daughter's death, she says she is positive that the bottle half-filled with chloroform found on Barfield was three-quarters full when she saw it last. She says the bottle stood for some time on a shelf in a bedroom.

She also asserts that Barfield has been in the habit of carrying cyanide of potassium about with him, using it at his trade.

It is denied by Mrs. Bishop that there were any drugs around the house to which her daughter could have had access.

She did not at any time, during the morning, see Barfield give his wife anything to drink and owns herself completely puzzled as to the cause of death.

Her daughter was only 22 years old, and beautiful.

Mrs. Bishop admits that the existence of the Kentucky woman was a bar to the complete happiness of her daughter and Barfield.

A CHANGE FOR THE BETTER.

The Way Physicians Now Treat Catarrh.

Physicians who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or ointments now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because as one of the most prominent states, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all of the really efficient and reliable catarrh remedies, such as red gum, blood root and hydrastis.

They contain no cocaine or opiate (so common in liquid catarrh medicines and ough syrups) and they are given to little children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Roseman says: "I suffered from Catarrh in my head and throat every winter, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat, affecting my voice so that I was continually clearing my throat before I could speak plainly; it finally extended to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach."

"I bought a 50-cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggist's, and used them in my pocket and used them regularly several times a day, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat and improved my hearing and general health I consider little short of remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and now I am entirely free from 'catarrh trouble whatever.'"

Dr. Jerome Ellison of Wheeling writes: "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrh of the head and throat so much that they were out of school a part of the winter. My brother, who was cured of catarrh of the head by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, urged me much to try them, and I sent for a box and bought a package, and I am truly thankful for what they have done for me and my children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house, and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat one or two of the catarrh tablets nip it in the bud, and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

WIDOW WIN RUNAWAY

MRS. ELIZA K. FOLLANSBEE

Mrs. Follansbee Sets Aside Will Giving All to a Favored Farmhand.

HARTVILLE, Mo., March 6.—Mrs. Eliza Follansbee has won her suit to set aside the will of her late husband, Edwin Follansbee, who left his entire estate to his farm hand, Henry Roseman, and the latter's little son.

The verdict of the jury in her favor was returned last yesterday afternoon.

Roseman, who is said to be ill, was not in court, and was represented by his attorneys. They say they will appeal the case.

Mrs. Follansbee was on the witness stand an hour, during which she told of her marriage and of her husband's subsequent abandonment of her and her children eleven years ago.

Mrs. Follansbee first heard of her husband's bequest to Roseman through a story in the Post-Dispatch.

She was then in Fremont, Neb., convinced that the testator of the will was her late husband, she went to Mountain Grove to investigate.

Investigation.
Assuring herself after the investigation that her theory was right, she filed suit to break the will.

Follansbee tried vainly to get a continuance on the ground that he was ill.

Under the court's decision, all the property will go to the widow.

Three weeks before Follansbee's death, Roseman was present when the "old man" threw an armful of papers in the fire. They were mortgages and deeds to property, and certificates of stock. Roseman said that some deeds and mortgages were given to other persons as gifts from the strange old man. After this Follansbee announced that he was "ready to go" for his attention. "Farther," he said, "I am your son."

"In this paper is your reward," and he handed to her a check for $2,500.00. The money was dated November 7, 1902, and by terms Henry Roseman was made executor of Follansbee's estate without bond. The 100-acre farm, with house, barn and outbuildings, originally Cherry's, was bequeathed to Roseman's son, James Cherry.

To Henry Roseman was devised three lots in Mountain Grove, Mo. On one is a very stable, on the second there is a store building and a dwelling occupies the third. Nearly $600 in the bank was bequeathed to Roseman. The will was witnessed by Albert Strube, J. M. Sanders and Amos Sanders.

Not a single reference did the will make to any other property. The secret of the whereabouts and extent of the major portion of Follansbee's estate is locked in Henry Roseman's breast.

Follansbee died Dec. 6 last. A day or so before he died he called Roseman to his side and directed him to bury him beside his friend, "Jack" Cherry.

"And Henry," he said, "if you care to spend money that way, you may get an inexpensive tombstone. Catholic tombstones, and place it above my grave."

Intend to Go.
Back to Family.

Previous to this, while the symptoms of the disease, cancer of the stomach, had taken a favorable turn, he said to several neighbors, "If I get well, boys, I am going back to them over yonder. Wouldn't you?" They never asked him to explain the remark, but believe now he was referring to wife and children.

After Follansbee's death Roseman presented the will for probate and entered upon the administration of the estate.

The story of his sudden accession to riches was published in the Post-Dispatch and so given wide circulation.

The report was read by Perry Woodcock, a business man in Rockland, Tex., who sent the clipping to Banker Smiles of Fremont, Neb., with the following letter: "You will read the enclosed clipping. The Ed Follansbee referred to in the story is my friend. He spent one night with him on his Mountain Grove farm two or three years ago. Ed told me he was sick and begged me not to let his whereabouts be known to the people of Fremont. He offered to set me up in business. I didn't go back and tell. I promised to keep his secret and death. I don't know if it is right that Ed is gone, I think it no more than right that his wife and children should have the benefit of his property, and you will place these facts in their possession."

Banker Smiles mailed the clipping to Follansbee, and gave her the letter and clipping.

"It was the first knowledge she had of her husband's death," she said, "and what property exists belongs to her children and to me. I intend to recover it."

Mrs. Follansbee is 40 years old, well preserved in form and features, cultured and refined. For a number of years she taught school.

COTTON KING'S LUNCHEON
COST HIM $2,500,000

Bears Raided Market He Had Been Supporting While He Was Away Eating and Big Flurry Resulted.

NEW YORK, March 6.—There was an active and excited opening in cotton this morning. Apparently having rallied their forces over night, the bull clique gave such vigorous support that prices shot up 7 to 11 points immediately following the call, holding very strong for 15 minutes, when scattered realising caused a setback to 3 3/8 for May and 3 1/8 for July. Covering was on a heavy scale. There was also considerable buying for room traders.

It now develops that it was while Daniel J. Sully, the new cotton king, was at luncheon that the bears raided the cotton market, forcing down prices in the biggest flurry seen in years.

Mr. Sully's lunch cost him $2,500,000 approximately. Ordinarily Mr. Sully spends money freely enough, but he is not a spendthrift. Moreover, he does not often eat $2,500,000 lunches, but yesterday's was an exception.

All day he had withstood the fierce attacks of the bears and felt at last that he was safe. Before the meal was half finished, one of his brokers came running to say that the bears, during his absence, had rebounded their attacks. The young plunger ran to the floor of the exchange, but was unable to withstand the deluge of sales. Cotton went down and down and when the day closed Sully had lost $2,500,000. The reaction today has restored some of this.

The lunch clique is credited with holdings of over 1,000,000 bales. On Monday they had paper profits of about $1,000,000. This morning they had shrunk $2,500,000 to $1,500,000 and if the slump continues to be completely wiped out. Mr. Sully's conduct during the trying hour when he saw money fading away from him is a study in the annals of the cotton market. The admission of the old operators that they watched him closely, but he exhibited no signs of worry. When the day was over he was as cheerful as ever. His conviction that prices were higher than those yet seen will be

Assault on the Girl, Confessed by Bluebeard, Was Never Committed.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW MADRID, Mo., March 5.—The assault upon a girl at this place in 1882, to which Alfred Knapp, the Indiana Bluebeard, confessed, was never committed.

The thrilling story of his fight with a posse and of holding it at bay with a rifle while he compelled a fisherman to row him across the Mississippi river is fiction.

According to Knapp's story, he was tramping through Missouri, when he stopped at a farmhouse and a 15-year-old girl gave him bread and milk.

When he found she was alone he assaulted her.

As he was leaving the house he saw a loaded rifle and grabbed it. Soon after he was pursued by 16 armed men, whom he held at bay and finally escaped to the river, where, at the point of his Winchester, he made a man die and did not know it.

After emptying the rifle he gave it to the man who had killed the fisherman. It is believed here that Knapp has begun to regard himself as a hero and that his mania for bragging of his feats in crime has caused him to exaggerate them.

ACCUSES WIFE HE SLEW OF MURDER.
HAMILTON, O., March 5.—Alfred Knapp today accused his last dead wife of murder.

"The woman I killed," he said, "was no better than I am. She committed murder and I know it, because she told me so herself. Maybe I ought not to say that against her, but she was a bad woman. I do not mean the Eckhart case, although she helped me kill Mary Eckhart. But in Cincinnati, in May, 1884, she smothered her own baby to death and said it was an accident. She was only a few months old and she wanted to get rid of it."

One night she ran up to the city hospital in Cincinnati, carrying the baby in her arms. It was still breathing, but almost dead, and she died in a short time. She told the hospital people that she had found its head buried under the covers of the bed when she woke up and did not know how it occurred. Her word was never questioned. Hannah told me all about it herself.

The funeral of the murdered woman takes place today.

Alfred Knapp's family have employed Cincinnati lawyers to defend him.

DOCTOR SAYS OVERWORK HAS PROSTRATED HIM

Audiences With Pilgrims Are Forbidden and Great Patient Must Have Absolute Rest Until His Recovery Is Complete.

ROME, March 5.—Dr. Lappont visited the Pope today and found him no worse with regard to symptoms of any special illness.

The physician has forbidden anyone to see the Pontiff, except the latter's nephew, Count Camillo Pecci, who entered the Pope's room as Dr. Lappont left it.

The fact is that the Pontiff's physical prostration is due to overwork and over excitement, which, however, leaves his mental faculties perfectly clear, wonderfully so, indeed.

Therefore, Dr. Lappont thinks that a few days' rest will restore the Pope to his usual condition.

The physician also says that the suspension of audiences will induce the numerous pilgrims and notable persons who are now in Rome to abandon the idea of seeing the Pontiff and thus avoid causing the latter further fatigue, which might place him in serious danger.

Popular Pastime.
Fly killing is a most popular game in many English towns. This will be news to Englishmen. In France, however, it is well known. A French sporting paper publishes the exact partition of this popular English pastime. Here they are: Teams are chosen and each player is allotted a certain space in which to kill flies.

Sale of Foulard Silks.

SEVERAL thousand yards of these very stylish and desirable silks are offered at an average saving of one-third.

A PROMINENT silk manufacturer of this country asked us for a spot cash offer on a considerable quantity of Foulard Silks. We were at a loss to understand the conditions, knowing that the demand for Foulard Silks is unprecedented, owing to their being in great favor for shirt-waist suits; however, our offer of about 70 cents on a dollar was readily accepted, and for that reason we are able to give you the very best values in desirable silks you have ever bought.

25c a yard for Pure China Silk, in blue, white, black and red, with white graduated dots, regular 40c quality.

39c a yard for 23-inch Japanese Foulards, in stripes, dots and figures, every thread guaranteed pure silk, worth 60c and 60c a yard.

49c a yard for 24-inch All-Silk Twilled Foulards, in all the leading shades, in dots and figures, small and medium designs, most beautiful patterns, 60c quality.

59c a yard for very fine grade of Satin Foulards, in all the leading shades, also white grounds with black figures and dots, goods worth 70c and 1.00 a yard.

75c a yard for Satin Finish Foulards, very best grade, small designs with plenty of small pinhead dots, in all the leading shades, full 24 inches wide, 1.25 quality.

Sale of Real Lace Curtains.

NEARLY 5000 pairs of Real Lace Curtains in Irish Point, Rococo and Swiss Tambour, representing the over-production of the great St. Gall manufacturers, Loeb & Schoenfeld, on sale tomorrow at nearly half price.

THIS is an occasion that you can look forward to with eager expectations. The values are remarkable, such as you have never before seen, even at Grand-Leader. A few of the curtains have slight imperfections, in some cases it is a loose thread, or perhaps the thread is a little thick in places, but on the whole they are perfect goods and worth fully the prices we claim they are. The entire 5000 pairs go in three assortments.

Lot 1 at $1.95—Actual $3.00 and $3.50 Values.

This lot consists of Real Irish Point Lace Curtains, made on good quality bobbinet, 3 1/2 and 3 3/4 yards long, 42 to 50 inches wide; they come in a big assortment of very pretty novelty designs with strictly flat edges, quantities range from 5 to 10 pairs of a kind—$2.00 and $2.50 grades on sale at, per pair.....

Special Sale of Spring Suits

WOMEN'S and Misses' Stylish Spring Suits, made up in most popular effects and of the most desirable fabrics, are offered at a third less than they are really worth.

How we are able to offer new and stylish garments at such a great reduction at the very beginning of the season has occasioned considerable comment. A manufacturer produced too many, more than he could dispose of through ordinary trade channels, for that reason he was glad to dispose of 500 at a great discount.

The materials are Fancy Mixtures, Men's Wear Cloth, Scotch Suiting, Hair-line Stripes, Cheviots, Hopsacking and Venetians, in all the latest spring colors. The jackets are collarless blouse effect, with single or triple shoulder cape or plain or fancy stole fronts trimmed with large fancy buttons, capes, stoles and cuffs trimmed with white and black braid. They are made with the newest pouch sleeves and cavalier cuffs, have newest peplum and postilion backs. The coats are all silk lined, the skirts are unlined and come in several flare styles, cut with half length train. They are faultlessly tailored garments and perfect fitting. They are excellent values at $12.50—your choice of several styles, three of which we illustrate, for.....

SENATE IN EXTRA SESSION; MORGAN AGAIN ITS MASTER

Smoot, Mormon Apostle, Is Sworn In Without Protest Amid Applause, and Gorman's Return to the Fold Is the Signal for Much Handclapping.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The United States Senate met at noon today in special session called by the President. It was an interesting event as such sessions do not usually occur except when a President of the United States is inducted into office.

At the beginning of the new Congress—today was the first session of the Senate of the Fifty-eighth Congress—the oath was administered to 26 senators who took office for six years. Of these 17 were re-elected as follows:

Allison (Iowa), Clay (Georgia), Dillingham (Vermont), Fairbanks (Indiana), Foraker (Ohio), McEnery (Louisiana), Mallory (Florida), serving on appointment until the legislature meets), Penrose (Pennsylvania), Perkins (California), Pettus (Alabama), Platt (Connecticut), Platt (New York), Spooner (Wisconsin), Teller (Colorado).

The oath was administered to 13 new senators, although one, Mr. Gorman, has previously served 15 years in the Senate.

The new senators are: Fulton (Oregon), Gorman (Maryland), Heyburn (Idaho), Hopkins (Illinois), Lattimer (South Carolina), Long (Kansas), McCreary (Kentucky), Newlands (Nevada), Overman (North Carolina), Smoot (Utah).

The Senate being a continuous body, its officers hold until their successors are chosen, so promptly at noon the body was called to order by President Pro Tem. Frye.

The scene was a brilliant one, and not unlike the opening of every session of Congress.

The galleries were filled at an early hour, and in the family and reserved galleries were friends and relatives of the new senators.

The desks of the new senators could be distinguished by the wealth of flowers which had been placed on them.

The lavishment of admirers was shown by the fact that desks and even chairs in some instances were completely buried under huge floral pieces and beautiful bouquets.

During the swearing in of the new senators the proceedings were frequently interrupted by applause in the gallery.

Mr. Gorman received an ovation when his name was called.

President Pro Tem Frye announced that the chair "was especially lent to the galleries today."

No objection was made when Mr. Smoot's name was called. He received some applause from the gallery.

Four newly-elected senators—Ankeny, Clarke (Ark.), Gallinger and Stone—were not sworn in.

First to be taken up, probably, will be the Panama Canal treaty which has already received many days' consideration. That it was not approved long ago was due entirely to the stubborn opposition of Senator John T. Morgan of Alabama, who has steadfastly insisted on certain amendments being made to it. It is to him that the extra session is due as had he not spoken almost continually for a week in opposition to the treaty, it would have been ratified long ago.

With the extra session, Senator Morgan again comes to the front as the man of the day.

Third Object Lesson Shown.

It will be an object lesson in the weakness of the Senate rules, just such an one as Senator Tillman furnished yesterday, representative Cannon, in securing the Senate for its failure to enforce majority rule that case predicted the coming of a day when one senator can hold up all legislation. Senator Morgan, when he resumes his single-handed speech-making, will give the lurid exhibition within a few weeks of the Senate's blustering and it is the general opinion in Washington that his fight against the canal will hasten reform in the Senate.

The Republican leaders say they will let him resume his speech-making in opposition to the bill and under the rules of the Senate no end can be put to his talk by the majority until it employs a continuous session to wear him out.

At 80 years of age the Alabama senator is still a man of remarkable strength. During the short session just ended he has spoken, it is estimated, 20,000 words in opposing the Panama canal treaty. That means about two hundred ordinary newspaper columns. All this has been to the point, and not of the character of speech-making Senator Tillman held up the Senate with yesterday when he started to read Byron's complete works.

Dead March.

More in Reserve.

Not only did Senator Morgan deliver this immense mass of matter, but he was primed with an equal quantity in addition. He will probably speak several hundred more words before he is worn out in the extra session. Known as the "father of the canal," Senator Morgan knows more about the proposed inter-oceanic waterway than any other man. In addition to delivering speeches 20,000 words long, he sat in his seat steadily for two weeks or more ready at any time to spring into the debate with an argument full of facts.

He disclaims any intention to filibuster, and in a statement today asserted that he means merely to force proper amendment of the treaty.

While the Republicans believe some of his amendments valuable, they do not believe the Columbia government will accept them. Therefore, the treaty will be pushed through as it stands.

Senator Morgan has gained two recruits for his side in the Panama matter in Senators Chapman and McCreary, of Maryland and Kentucky. They favor some of the amendments and will aid in the bill.

The Cuban reciprocity treaty is said to be the order of eventual adoption, as only sixteen senators oppose it. They may, however, delay its ratification for weeks. The most hopeful senators do not expect the extra session until April 15.

Sixty Must Vote.

Sixty senators will have to vote for the Cuban treaty, as that number will constitute the necessary two-thirds. This is on the presumption that all members of the Senate will be present and voting, as the extraordinary session called for that purpose must be so.

MAYOR APPROVES COUNCIL SLATE

Democratic Leaders Agree on Five Nominations for Upper House.

DEMOCRATIC COUNCIL TICKET.

Isaac W. Morton of the Simmons Hardware Co.
Horatio N. Davis of the State National Bank, president Smith-Davis Mfg. Co.
Henry G. Rolfe of the Rehels-Rolfe Lumber Co.
William A. Gardner, vice-president of Merchants' Exchange.
Dr. Helme Marks, physician.
Sixth candidate not selected.

According to what is deemed good authority a committee representing all factions of the Democratic party has selected five of the six candidates for the City Council, and after the slate had been approved by Mayor Wells, the candidates selected were persuaded to take the places assigned them.

The slate selected is in line with the plans to purify municipal politics. The committee making the selections consisted of Isaac H. Lionberger, George J. Tanney, John E. Lee, John H. Butler, John P. Dolan, Harry B. Hawes, E. E. Gulon, Frank K. Kleiber and A. C. Steuber.

Isaac W. Morton, one of the men said to have been selected for nomination, has been a very active leader among the residents of the territory just north of Forest Park, who have caused ordinances to be prepared vacating the ground in the Catlin strip and near it and placing the railroad tracks in Forest Park as a compromise to relieve that territory of large railroad yards.

Special committees were necessary to persuade them to take places on the ticket, and Isaac H. Lionberger, George J. Tanney and John E. Lee, who have spent considerable time with Messrs. Morton, Davis and Gardner.

As the five candidates named in the slate are assumed to be friendly to Mayor Wells, their selection for nomination that there will be no opposition to the mayor's appointments in April.

At least, one of the hold-over members are friendly to the mayor, and with five new men supporting him, he will have no opposition beyond personal preferences for certain offices.

Mayor Wells will have about 20 appointments to make, and all go to the City Council for approval.

SLIPPERS MADE OF PAPER.

Much Used in European Hotels by Guests With Dirty Footwear.

Some of the European hotels are introducing a novelty by furnishing each guest on his arrival with a pair of paper slippers, and the plan is expected to contribute largely toward the cleanliness of the hostesses. The slippers are cheap, made of white or brown paper, stitched with heavy cotton thread. They are so constructed that they can be torn apart at the heel, and the most expensive is made of an extra good quality of white paper. The cheapest is made of common brown paper.

These paper slippers are so cheap that new ones can be furnished to each guest. All attempts to introduce them to the public have failed, as the hostesses are afraid to clean them and form another preventive of contagion, since each pair could be torn away or destroyed as soon as the wearer has done with them.

TELEPHONE GIRL FORMS LIFE-TIME CONNECTION

Miss Margaret Sheehy Rings Off at the East St. Louis Exchange to Elope to St. Louis With Charles Christian.

Miss Margaret Sheehy, now Mrs. Charles Christian, is the latest East St. Louis telephone girl to give up the position of talking to many men for a lifetime walk and talk with one man.

Miss Sheehy was, until Wednesday, an employee of the Bell Telephone Co. in East St. Louis. Wednesday morning she notified the chief operator, Miss McCarver, that she would not be at work Wednesday afternoon. She had other business on hand and she did not state its nature. That business included a visit to the St. Louis marriage license office, and the office of Justice of the Peace Carroll.

Charles Christian of 318 St. Louis avenue accompanied her. When she returned to East St. Louis she was Mrs. Charles Christian. Later the telephone company learned that another of their young women had deserted them.

The marriage was an elopement. The bride's father, John Sheehy of North Sixth street, being ignorant that it was to take place. Her parents did not want her to be married yet and objected to the ceremony being performed in East St. Louis. The groom's parents had no objection to the match. He is employed by an East St. Louis commission company.

MRS. POTTER RUNS A PLUMBING SHOP

Odd Facts Disclosed in Bishop's Wife's Accounts as Her Son's Guardian.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, March 5.—It has been learned incidentally that in connection with the management of the estate of Alfred Corning Clark, whose widow was married to Bishop Henry Potter of C. Potter last October, a carpenter shop and a plumbing shop is run. This was disclosed at a hearing before Edward L. Farrar, referee, to pass upon the accounts of Mrs. Potter as guardian of the estate of her son, Stephen Carlton Clark, who will reach his majority next August. The referee finds that her accounts are correct, and that there is due to her for money expended in caring for her son's property $58,955.

Stephen Carlton Clark inherited under the will of his grandfather, Edward Clark, the entire block bounded by Central Park West and Columbus avenue, Eighty-fifth and Eighty-sixth streets, with the exception of two lots, and in addition to this a legacy of $50,000 cash. The estate has been valued at $200,000 of the personal bequest in the estate of fourteen houses now on the property. A large trust fund is also held for the benefit of the young man under the will of his father.

When Mrs. Potter's former husband, Mr. Clark, died, leaving a vast estate needing constant attention, it was found advisable to have a carpenter shop and a plumbing shop to work which otherwise would be done by outsiders. Mrs. Potter, then Mrs. Clark, invested in the plant of both shops. And all the carpenter and plumbing work for the estate in this city is done by those two shops.

So far as the property of Stephen Carlton Clark is concerned, the buildings were erected for the purpose of deriving an income to pay the taxes on the entire plot. The income did pay the taxes for a time, but on account of the increase in the appraised value of the property it is now insufficient.

A Call for a Poet.

From Tradition and Transmission.

What we need is a poet who shall do for science what Kipling has done for Imperialism. In spite of all the abuse showered from pulpits on human nature it still values kisses more than bread and cheese, and never forgets for long that it was created in the image of God. It will only respond enthusiastically to appeals pitched in a high key.

Sad State of Poetry.

Frank Richardson in Macmillan's Magazine.

For some time the use of poetry has for some time been abandoned, and worse experimentalism has been employed instead. With patriotic songs for the purpose of being heard by the masses, it is probable that in another 10 years the entire block bounded by Central Park West and Columbus avenue, Eighty-fifth and Eighty-sixth streets, will be a publishing house.

THREE PASSENGERS HURT

Collision of Transit Cars at Chouteau and St. Ange Avenues Caused a Stampede.

At 3 o'clock Thursday morning a street car accident at Chouteau and St. Ange avenues caused a stampede by the passengers and three persons were injured. A loaded brick wagon broke down on the track and two cars stopped awaiting its removal.

A third car dashed into the others. It was filled with people. The force of the impact threw three standing on the floor and several were pitched over the seats in front.

At Louis Schnell's grocery store, 1444 Chouteau avenue, two men whose names could not be learned, had badly lacerated hands dressed.

A young lady was trampled upon. All of the passengers were considerably shaken up, but were able to resume their trip downtown.

The vestibules of the cars were badly wrecked and a few windows broken.

Not Only Relief; A Cure.

ASTHMA

Many discouraged Asthmatics who long for a cure or even relief, lack faith to try, believing a cure impossible. HIRMOR'S ASTHMA CURE is truly a grand remedy and possesses a virtue unknown to other remedies that not only instantly relieves but cures.

The late Sir Dr. Morrell McKenzie, England's foremost physician, used HIRMOR'S ASTHMA CURE constantly in his private practice. If you are discouraged send for a generous free sample. It will not disappoint you.

HIRMOR'S ASTHMA CURE is a standard remedy prescribed by many eminent physicians and sold throughout the world for over a quarter of a century. A truly remarkable testimonial in itself.

AIBULA IS THE CHOICE IN NEW ORLEANS FEATURE

By Ways in the First Race and Ailyer to Run Second in the Third Are the Handicapper's Prize Selections.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW ORLEANS, March 5.—
Best selections:
Byways, in first race.
Ailyer, place, third race.
Aibula, in fourth race.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW ORLEANS, March 5.—The cars today in the very light but still giving promise of good sport. The entries and handicaps are as follows:

First race, seven furlongs. Byways first, Right and True second,
Orpheum third.

Broken in 1:10 By Ways 105
Right and True 110 Fair Lass 105
Orpheum 105
Byways outpaces this lot. She is rated by some shrewd judges as a filly of great promise. She should have no trouble in winning. As a matter of fact, she looks a certain winner. Right and True should be second and Orpheum third. While Orpheum is a good horse, he will be worth a good bet for the place.

Second race, selling, five furlombs. Antonius first, Lady
Brookway second, Esmack third.

Antonius 105
Lady Brookway 105
Esmack 105
Antonius is a fast horse, capable of beating the other horses in this race. He is a quick breaker and has plenty of speed. Lady Brookway is a good horse, but she is not as fast as Antonius. Esmack is a good horse, but he is not as fast as the other two.

If Antonius could be depended upon to run his race he would make an exhibition of this lot. He is a fast horse, capable of beating the other horses in this race. He is a quick breaker and has plenty of speed. Lady Brookway is a good horse, but she is not as fast as Antonius. Esmack is a good horse, but he is not as fast as the other two.

Third race, selling, six furlombs. Ailyer first, Censor second, Malster third.

Ailyer 110
Censor 110
Malster 110
Ailyer should win this race. The field is small and he will escape the interference of the other horses. Censor is a good horse, but he is not as fast as Ailyer.
Malster is a good horse, but he is not as fast as the other two.

Fourth race, handicap, one mile.
Aibula first, Mildred entry second, Dersake third.

Imp. Aibula 105
Mildred 105
Dersake 105
Aibula at the weights should win this race. He is a consistent horse—that is, when he gets a ride. With a good boy in the saddle he should win all the way.
Mildred and Dersake are the best of the other horses, but they are not as fast as Aibula.

Fifth race, selling, one and one-sixteenth miles. Banish first,
Obia second, Mary Moore third.

Banish 105
Obia 105
Mary Moore 105
Banish, if he runs the race he did the last time out, should win this race. He is a fast horse, capable of beating the other horses in this race. Obia is a good horse, but he is not as fast as Banish.
Mary Moore is a good horse, but she is not as fast as the other two.

Sixth race, one and one-sixteenth miles. Sue Johnson first,
Denny Duffy second, Inspector
Shea third.

Inspector Shea 105
Sue Johnson 105
Denny Duffy 105
Inspector Shea is a fast horse, capable of beating the other horses in this race. He is a consistent horse—that is, when he gets a ride. Sue Johnson is a good horse, but she is not as fast as Inspector Shea. Denny Duffy is a good horse, but he is not as fast as the other two.

MUNROE SIGNS TO WRESTLE

NEW YORK, March 5.—The wrestling match between Tom Jenkins, the ex-champion, and Jack Munroe, the minor pugilist, will take place at Madison Square Garden

SIXTY-FOUR ASPIRANTS FOR HOUSE; FOUR WILL HAVE NO OPPOSITION

Post-Dispatch Presents Occupations and Records of Candidates for Seats as Delegates—Eleven Are Members of Present Combine, Ten Are Saloonists.

Sixty-four names of aspirants for seats in the House of Delegates are on file in the office of the Board of Election Commissioners. Thirty-five of these are Democrats and 29 Republicans.

Fifty of these will be candidates at the election, a he held April 7. In six of the city's 23 wards only one party will have a candidate. In the Third, Fifth, Sixth, Twelfth and Twenty-third wards, the Democratic candidate will be unopposed. Two of these Democratic aspirants, Daniel F. McCarthy of the Twenty-first and John R. McCarthy of the Twenty-third, will have no opposition at the party primaries, so that their election to the House is now assured.

In the Twelfth ward, Dr. Arthur Hammerstein, the Republican candidate, has a similar walkover.

Blood Was Poisoned.

A Happy Cure After Use of Two Bottles of

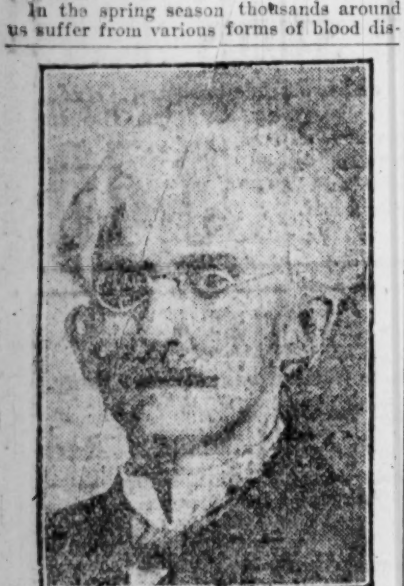

Paine's Celery Compound

The Spring System Cleanser

Health is that natural state of the whole body in which the entire nervous system is so perfectly regulated that it can, without undue effort, perform its almost numberless and all-important duties.

The blood is the life through the body must bear nourishment and life or poison and death.

In the spring season thousands around us suffer from various forms of blood dis-cases and many are unexpectedly cut down by death.

Your blood is surely filled with waste and poisonous matters when you suffer from boils, pimples, blackheads, eczema, salt rheum, erysipelas or itch. When nerve force is low, when you suffer from insomnia, lassitude or neuritis, be assured your blood demands purifying and cleansing.

Paine's Celery Compound quickly banishes from the blood all poisons. It supplies the proper elements for enriching the vital fluid, building tissue and for the general repair of the whole system. Try its renovating and life-giving virtues at once if you would be made well, strong and happy. Judge P. P. Desveraine of Havana, says:

"While I was in New York I read about Paine's Celery Compound and never thought I would ever get well. I only need one bottle of that wonderful discovery and found myself with better vigor and energy."

Mr. Thomas Young, Elmora, Pa., says: "I suffered very much from blood poisoning, and after doctoring for two months with my physician and not receiving any good results, I tried Paine's Celery Compound. The use of two bottles completely cured me. All my thanks are due to Paine's Celery Compound."

OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER.

Ed. Koehn, the Republican candidate, is a saloon keeper at 185 South Second street.

George Rott, whom the Democrats will nominate in opposition, is a saloon keeper at 185 South Second street.

BECKER AND BLOCK.

EIGHTH WARD—The Republican nominee will be John H. Becker, new deputy factory inspector. His present position will be terminated in April and he wants a new municipal office. While holding his present position he was indicted for attempted bribery. He was accused of attempting to improperly influence a Jury Commissioner. Weinberger in his selection of a jury for the Kratz trial before the flight of the hoodlum councilman. He lives at 1834 South Seventh street.

FOUR ASPIRANTS IN NINTH.

NINTH WARD—Here there are three candidates for the Republican nomination. One of them, John P. Nolde of 319 South Ninth street is the proprietor of a dental depot on North Ninth street. By coincidence, another, Dr. E. J. Lehmann of 235 Pestalozzi street, Louis Hehl, a clerk for the Kellogg Newspaper Co., is the third. Nolde and Lehmann are new in politics. Hehl has been a candidate in the roofing business at 365 Lynch street and resides at 280 South Eighth street.

SIMMONS AND HUGHES.

TENTH WARD—Frank N. Simmons, a plumber, unknown in politics, is the Republican nominee. He lives at 201 South Jefferson avenue and his place of business is at 217 North Twenty-second street. William H. Hughes, the only Democratic candidate, is well known in politics as the chief lieutenant of "Charley" Lemp in his many battles against the rival brewers. Hughes and Lemp's nomination is taken to indicate that some sort of a truce has been effected between the hostile camps. Hughes lives at 3333 Keokuk street.

KOELN AND O'NEILL.

ELEVENTH WARD—Ed. Koehn, the present speaker pro tem, is the Republican candidate once more in this ward. He belongs to an old Carondelet family and knows most of his constituents personally. Though he lives at 901 South Broadway, he is the proprietor of a saloon on Sixth street near the Franklin avenue. He has been a member of the combine throughout his present term.

Edward J. O'Neill, an unknown in politics, has been selected by the Democrats to furnish the opposition. He is a Wabash clerk who lives at 821 Loughborough avenue.

DR. HAMMERSTEIN UNOPPOSED.

TWELFTH WARD—A veterinary surgeon has been nominated by the Republicans in the Twelfth ward. He is Dr. Arthur Hammerstein of 247 Lemp avenue. The doctor is not widely known as a politician.

NASSE AND WEIDMER.

THIRTEENTH WARD—Unusually good candidates are presented by both parties in the Thirteenth ward. August Nasse, the Republican candidate, is a wholesale grocer, a well-to-do citizen of good standing socially and in the business world. He has never before applied to public office. He resides at 223 Lafayette avenue.

The Democratic candidate, Fred Weidmer, is vice-president of the Gratiot Street Warehouse Co. He resides at 261 Sada avenue. His opponent, he has never before applied to public office.

WILLIAMS AND GANDEL.

FOURTEENTH WARD—John B. Williams, a Democrat, who represents the ward at present, will again be the Democratic candidate. He lives at 539 South Twenty-third street and is foreman of the automobile line that runs across the Sada street.

He has been a member of the combine in the last House, and is generally regarded as a fair and honest politician. The only candidate for the Republican nomination is a blacksmith. He desires the place of the combine in the last House, and is generally regarded as a fair and honest politician. The only candidate for the Republican nomination is a blacksmith. He desires the place of the combine in the last House, and is generally regarded as a fair and honest politician.

THREE SALOON MEN.

FIFTEENTH WARD—A saloon man will represent this ward in the next House unless an independent candidate should be nominated and elected. There have been no seekers for the Republican nomination and the three men who desire the place on the Democratic ticket are all in the beer-selling business. One is a barkeeper, another is a saloon proprietor, while the third is a partner in a saloon-owning firm.

John B. Griffin, the present incumbent and a loyal combine man, is one of the three. The directory describes him as a saloon proprietor, and he is a partner in a saloon-owning firm. The directory describes him as a saloon proprietor, and he is a partner in a saloon-owning firm.

WITTHOEF AND LUEKING.

SECOND WARD—C. H. Witthoef, Republican candidate, is an old-time political worker. He held a job under the Ziegler administration in the street department. He has also been on the central committee. He is now a contractor, and lives at 3215 North Ninth street.

August C. Lueking, the Democratic candidate, is vice-president of the Mount City Cattle Co. He resides at 129 Robert street. He is new in politics.

HEFFERNAN, MAULIFFE, LYNAM.

THIRD WARD—The Republicans have filed no name for this ward, and the contest will be for the Democratic nomination. John P. Sweeney, one of the most picturesque members of the House, represented this ward for the past three terms. For his place three men are struggling. They are J. T. Heffernan, a saloon keeper at 124 North Third street; T. M. Mauliffe of 124 Collins street, an inspector in the license commission who must resign that place if nominated, and J. T. Lynam, a clerk, residing at 125 Cass avenue.

KINNEY AND CASE.

FOURTH WARD—Thomas E. Kinney, more widely known by the sobriquet of "Snake," has been renominated by the Democrats of this ward. He is a saloon keeper, with places of business on Collins street and also 215 North Ninth street. Before his election to the House two years ago, Kinney had a police record, which he has since enlarged.

Clarence T. Case, a young attorney, who lives at 123 Washington avenue, has undertaken to oppose Kinney on the Republican ticket. He is a church and Sunday school worker and an active Republican.

HORCHLER AND CONRAN.

FIFTH WARD—Henry Horchler of 1236 Clark avenue is the Republican candidate. The directory says he is a foreman. Politically, he is unknown. Opposed to him is "Joe" Conran, a veteran Democratic ward politician. He is a loyal Butler adherent. For many years he was secretary of the Democratic club committee. In business he is a plumber, with a shop at 2 South Ninth street. He was a deputy marshal, but resigned after an investigation. He resides at 108 North Twelfth. This ward has no representation in the present House when "Jim" Cronin was elected to a Justice court bench.

NEUN AND ZIMMERMAN.

SIXTH WARD—Henry C. Neun, the Republican candidate, is manager of the grocery establishment of Philip Neun, at the northeast corner of St. Ange and Park avenues. The Neun family has lived in that neighborhood for years and is highly respected. This is Mr. Neun's first political venture.

His Democratic opponent is W. C. Zimmerman, a saloon keeper at 1024 Chestnut avenue. Charles J. Donny, now under penitentiary sentence for perjury, is the leading member from this ward. He is a Democrat.

PEEFLE AND ROTT.

SEVENTH WARD—Henry Pefeel, the present Republican member, has no opposition for nomination. He is a teamster and lives at 208 South Second street. He is a member of the present House combine.

George Rott, whom the Democrats will nominate in opposition, is a saloon keeper at 185 South Second street.

BECKER AND BLOCK.

August Nasse, the Republican candidate, is a wholesale grocer, a well-to-do citizen of good standing socially and in the business world. He has never before applied to public office. He resides at 223 Lafayette avenue.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE, FRED WEIDMER, is vice-president of the Gratiot Street Warehouse Co. He resides at 261 Sada avenue. His opponent, he has never before applied to public office.

WILLIAMS AND GANDEL.

FOURTEENTH WARD—John B. Williams, a Democrat, who represents the ward at present, will again be the Democratic candidate. He lives at 539 South Twenty-third street and is foreman of the automobile line that runs across the Sada street.

HE HAS BEEN A MEMBER OF THE COMBINE IN THE LAST HOUSE, AND IS GENERALLY REGARDED AS A FAIR AND HONEST POLITICIAN. THE ONLY CANDIDATE FOR THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION IS A BLACKSMITH. HE DESIRES THE PLACE OF THE COMBINE IN THE LAST HOUSE, AND IS GENERALLY REGARDED AS A FAIR AND HONEST POLITICIAN.

THREE SALOON MEN.

FIFTEENTH WARD—A saloon man will represent this ward in the next House unless an independent candidate should be nominated and elected. There have been no seekers for the Republican nomination and the three men who desire the place on the Democratic ticket are all in the beer-selling business. One is a barkeeper, another is a saloon proprietor, while the third is a partner in a saloon-owning firm.

JOHN B. GRIFFIN, the present incumbent and a loyal combine man, is one of the three. The directory describes him as a saloon proprietor, and he is a partner in a saloon-owning firm. The directory describes him as a saloon proprietor, and he is a partner in a saloon-owning firm.

WITTHOEF AND LUEKING.

SECOND WARD—C. H. Witthoef, Republican candidate, is an old-time political worker. He held a job under the Ziegler administration in the street department. He has also been on the central committee. He is now a contractor, and lives at 3215 North Ninth street.

AUGUST C. LUEKING, the Democratic candidate, is vice-president of the Mount City Cattle Co. He resides at 129 Robert street. He is new in politics.

HEFFERNAN, MAULIFFE, LYNAM.

THIRD WARD—The Republicans have filed no name for this ward, and the contest will be for the Democratic nomination. John P. Sweeney, one of the most picturesque members of the House, represented this ward for the past three terms. For his place three men are struggling. They are J. T. Heffernan, a saloon keeper at 124 North Third street; T. M. Mauliffe of 124 Collins street, an inspector in the license commission who must resign that place if nominated, and J. T. Lynam, a clerk, residing at 125 Cass avenue.

KINNEY AND CASE.

FOURTH WARD—Thomas E. Kinney, more widely known by the sobriquet of "Snake," has been renominated by the Democrats of this ward. He is a saloon keeper, with places of business on Collins street and also 215 North Ninth street. Before his election to the House two years ago, Kinney had a police record, which he has since enlarged.

CLARENCE T. CASE, a young attorney, who lives at 123 Washington avenue, has undertaken to oppose Kinney on the Republican ticket. He is a church and Sunday school worker and an active Republican.

HORCHLER AND CONRAN.

FIFTH WARD—Henry Horchler of 1236 Clark avenue is the Republican candidate. The directory says he is a foreman. Politically, he is unknown. Opposed to him is "Joe" Conran, a veteran Democratic ward politician. He is a loyal Butler adherent. For many years he was secretary of the Democratic club committee. In business he is a plumber, with a shop at 2 South Ninth street. He was a deputy marshal, but resigned after an investigation. He resides at 108 North Twelfth. This ward has no representation in the present House when "Jim" Cronin was elected to a Justice court bench.

NEUN AND ZIMMERMAN.

SIXTH WARD—Henry C. Neun, the Republican candidate, is manager of the grocery establishment of Philip Neun, at the northeast corner of St. Ange and Park avenues. The Neun family has lived in that neighborhood for years and is highly respected. This is Mr. Neun's first political venture.

DEMOCRATIC WORKER, RECENTLY SELECTED JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.

THE THIRD CANDIDATE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION IS J. W. SCHERRER. HE KEEPS A SALOON AT 130 FRANKLIN AVENUE. HE IS NOW IN POLITICS.

SIXTEENTH WARD—The Republicans seem to concede this ward as hopelessly Democratic as they have put forward no candidates for the nomination. John J. "Burr" Burke, who represented the ward and several times was a candidate, has resigned. He resigned from the present House a few months ago, after telling his colleagues that they were not running the House for the best interest of the city. He then took a position as deputy clerk of the court of criminal correction. W. J. Brennan and Timothy Moloney are candidates for the district of succeeding Mr. Burke.

HOWARD AND WERKE.

SEVENTEENTH WARD—James J. Howard, the present member, is again seeking the Democratic nomination. Howard is a combine man. He is a horseholder, and works in the house he has been loyal to his employer. He lives at 223 Howard street. Opposing him for the nomination is J. J. Sheehan of 229 St. Louis avenue, a bookkeeper.

FOR THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION the candidate is Henry J. Weeks, Jr. of 2014 Madison street. The directory describes Weeks' occupation as a butcher, but he is better known as a professional pugilist. He served a term in the House for this ward, and was sergeant-at-arms of the House. He is a member of the combine, and is known for drawing a revolver on citizens who attempted to enter the clerk's office.

KLUTE, WETZEL AND FECHTER.

EIGHTEENTH WARD—John H. Klute, who has been elected to the present House on the Public Ownership ticket, is now seeking the Republican nomination for a second term. He was against the combine at the last election. He is vice-president of the Sanders Dock and Rubber Company, and is a member of the combine. He is a saloon keeper at 1123 Morgan street, and is a member of the combine. He is a saloon keeper at 1123 Morgan street, and is a member of the combine.

FOR THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION the candidate is Joseph Maserang, Jr., druggist, at the northeast corner of Leffingwell and Washington avenues. He will be his opponent.

MCCARTHY'S WALKOVER.

TWENTY-THIRD WARD—John R. McCarthy, an employee of Edward Butler, will be the Democratic candidate in this ward. He lives at 318 Laclede avenue. During the progress of the Butler trial at Columbia a continuance was secured by the defense for over 10 years in the House. A. G. Williams, who is unknown to the politicians, is the third candidate.

George R. Noy will be the Democratic candidate. The directory gives his occupation as a collector and his address as 229 Thomas street.

THREE AFTER KELLY'S JOB.

TWENTY-SECOND WARD—Charles F. Kelly, of international fame, in connection with the boodle inquiry, is the present delegate from this ward. He is not a candidate. An equally picturesque Democrat is after the nomination, however, in the person of Paddy Brennan. Brennan is an old man, famous for the fact that in a Republican landslide which swept all but one Democrat off the roll of winners in an election about eight years ago, "Paddy" Brennan was returned the sole victor among his party's candidates. He is a contractor with an office at 518 Chestnut street. J. J. O'Brien, a coal dealer of 222 Cass avenue, also seeks the nomination.

NATHAN A. GOLDSTEIN of 274 Howard street, who is in the harness business, will be the Republican candidate.

MEEHAN ONLY CANDIDATE.

TWENTY-FIRST WARD—Daniel F. Meehan, Democrat, has a walkover in this ward. He is a young man who has never before sought office. The directory says he is a manufacturer's agent. His firm is known as Meehan & Gavan, and their place of business, according to the directory, is at 219 North Twelfth street. Among other things, Meehan is said to be a candidate for a company that manufactures distillates. He has no opposition for the nomination, and there is no Republican candidate.

FONTANA AND MASERANG.

TWENTY-SECOND WARD—John B. Fontana, speaker of the present House of Delegates, will again be the Democratic nominee. At the last election he was defeated on the face of the returns by W. H. McChesney, Republican, but the Democratic majority counted him in. After trying two other speakers, they finally gave Fontana the job, though his knowledge of parliamentary law was limited to what he could acquire in the management of three saloons. He lives at 299 Olive street, above one of his three parlors. Fontana is fairly well known in this ward's goods and services.

JOSEPH MASERANG, Jr., druggist, at the northeast corner of Leffingwell and Washington avenues, will be his opponent.

MCCARTHY'S WALKOVER.

TWENTY-THIRD WARD—John R. McCarthy, an employee of Edward Butler, will be the Democratic candidate in this ward. He lives at 318 Laclede avenue. During the progress of the Butler trial at Columbia a continuance was secured by the defense on account of the absence of McCarthy, who had conveniently disappeared from the city. The directory says he is an inspector. There will be no Republican candidate in the ward. Edward Schaefer, grocer and clerk, filed his name, but withdrew it after it was too late for any other Republican to enter the fray. Prominent Republicans of the ward charge that Schaefer was put up as a friend of McCarthy and had an intention of trying to take any votes away from him.

BUCKLEY'S TWO OPPONENTS.

TWENTY-FOURTH WARD—T. J. Buckley, Democrat, present member, is again a candidate for the Democratic nomination. He is a carpenter and lives at 1814 North Twelfth street. He has been in the combine for the past two years. On the face of the returns he was defeated two years ago, but the Democratic majority seated him anyway. William G. Dierking will have the Republican nomination. He is a horseholder and lives at 1410 Odell avenue. J. Tschernbacher, a Clinton Heights butcher, will contest with Buckley for the Democratic nomination.

THREE IN TWENTY-FIFTH.

TWENTY-FIFTH WARD—C. A. Windmiller is the Republican candidate to succeed himself as delegate from this ward. He has always voted against the combine. He is an insurance agent and resides at 3903 Delmar boulevard. Edna Hunt, a horseholder, and Leonard Thornhill, a salesman and ward worker, are candidates for the Democratic nomination.

BRENNAN, HAFNER AND PAHL.

TWENTY-SIXTH WARD—James T. Brennan will be the Democratic candidate to succeed himself as the delegate from this ward. Like many of the other aspirants for the distinction of making city government, Brennan is a horseholder. He is a member of the firm of Thomas Brennan & Son, 441 Easton street. He has been a loyal combine man and is considered very friendly to the Butler influences.

FOR THE REPUBLICAN NOMINATION, William Hafner of 1390 Whittier street, president of the North Market Feed Co., and William Pahl, a huckster of 4439 North Market street, are the horseholders.

GERAGHTY AND BIRGE.

TWENTY-SEVENTH WARD—Charles L. Geraghty, Democrat, will be his party's candidate to succeed himself. He is in the lively and undertaking business at 421 Easton avenue and resides at 183 Bayard avenue. Geraghty is successful in business and a young man of pleasing personality. While serving his present term in the House he was indicted for misconduct in office. After several continuances the case against him was dropped. A similar case against the member of the assembly having been knocked out on a technicality. The charge against Geraghty was that he accepted contracts for city work when his oath as a member of the assembly prohibited him from doing so. It was charged that carriages were supplied to city officials by members of the House of Delegates and that, while the bills were made payable to "John E. Birge," the carriages came from Geraghty's stable. After the Post-Dispatch exposed the facts, Geraghty's friends have contended that even he was the beneficiary of the "Murphy" contracts, he did not rob the city of any money, as he gave value for the money he received.

THE REPUBLICANS HAVE NOMINATED AGAINST Geraghty a young man of high social and business standing, who has never before figured in politics. He is Walter W. Birge, assistant manager of the St. Louis Shovel Company, and son of Julius C. Birge, president of that company, and prominent member of the Business Men's League. He is a graduate of Washington University and a popular member of several society and musical organizations. Mr. Birge was the highest esteem in a large circle of friends, and though the ward was Democratic two years ago, his friends think he is an extremely correct choice of overcoming the majority.

LACKLAND AND TERRY.

TWENTY-EIGHTH WARD—The Republicans of this ward have agreed on Edgar C. Lackland, Jr., as their candidate. Mr. Lackland is a representative young St. Louisian of the best type. He is a lawyer, a graduate of Yale and of the St. Louis Law School. This is his first race for office, though he has been a member of Republican organizations for some years. He is a son of E. C. Lackland, 429 Westminster place and a grandson of Rufus J. Sanders, President of the Board of Aldermen in society and musical circles Mr. Lackland is prominent and popular.

THE DEMOCRATS HAVE NOMINATED Albert T. Terry, Jr., son of Leonard T. Terry, president of the Board of Aldermen, and a grandson of Rufus J. Sanders. Terry is a young man of excellent standing, both socially and in the business world. He is a young man of excellent standing, both socially and in the business world. He is a young man of excellent standing, both socially and in the business world.

PAUL REAGAN, an attorney, was elected on the Republican ticket to represent this ward in the present House. He became a success with the saloon and the way of doing business and quit. The House refused to accept his resignation, but he remained away from the meetings.

HOW BLIND MAN
READS THE MIND

Dr. Newel Perry Judges Persons by the Inflections and Tone of the Voice.

IT IS A BETTER INDEX
THAN THE APPEARANCE

He Can Detect Vanity, Dishonesty, Insanity, Illness, Age and Many Other Traits.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, March 5.—A remarkable blind man is Dr. Newel Perry Ph. D., Ph. B., of New York, private tutor to half a hundred Columbia College students. He is a celebrated mathematician and a graduate of the University of Munich, Chicago and San Francisco.

To the Post-Dispatch correspondent Dr. Perry dictated the following explanation of his method of analyzing the inflections and expressions of the human voice:

BY DR. NEWEL PERRY.

"The voice tells you instantly whether the speaker is a man of action, whether he possesses spontaneity and is an inflexible index to a man's mentality. Judgment, intelligence, understanding and character stand revealed the moment he speaks. Generosity, self-interest and conceit are of course easily read in a man's ideas, but where the face and conduct are usually taken as the only guides to character, the voice far surpasses them both as such, in safety and accuracy. Such knowledge seems to me instinct rather than science. To me, blind from my early childhood, I cannot recollect ever having been without the knowledge.

For instance, almost as soon as I hear the voice of some people I instinctively shrink from them almost involuntarily. They inspire me with a feeling of dread. These first impressions are usually borne out by subsequent information. I try in the first instance to overcome my repugnance, but the more I hear their voices the more repulsive they become to me. Such persons, of course, I try to avoid.

"Vanity, honesty, truth and all other human attributes are quickly betrayed by the tone and expressions of the voice. Vanity is denoted in the language as well as in the expression. It is one of the traits of human weakness most easily discovered. There is a tone of self-consciousness in everything a vain person says. This is especially noticeable in the speech of young women. They think constantly of the outward impression they make while speaking. They study their expressions and mannerisms.

"Dishonesty of mind is dishonesty of speech; they are co-related. The mind of a dishonest man dominates his speech. It takes on a smooth, artful expression, sometimes hesitating, sometimes constrained. Other times it attempts to overwhelm and convince with false logic and fiery speech.

"Dishonesty can be detected through the voice at a great distance. Frequently I have been asked by friends to take up one end of a telephone receiver to assist them in reading the mind and purpose of the person at the other end.

"My usual method of the thoroughly understanding a person is to draw him out to the fullest, not so much to absorb his thoughts or ideas as to analyze his expressions and speech. I let him talk on anything he chooses without attempting to guide his thoughts and if he is interested in any particular subject he will usually speak on it with enthusiasm. I let him try to convince me, but pay no attention to what he says beyond studying his tones and keeping an ear for fallacious or unsound reasoning. It is usually the logic of an argument—or the lack of logic, even in the slightest degree—that betrays the ulterior purpose of the speaker. I never offer a correction during the speech, so as to keep the speaker of his guard.

"On the other hand, the voice discovers honesty of mind or purpose almost instantly. It is a better and safer index to character than the countenance. Disimulation with the voice to a trained ear is impossible. There can be no imposture in that score. Disimulation in facial appearance many persons have to overcome and penetrate this facial disimulation, the interpreter of the voice has no such mask to uncover. Ordinarily the facial expression and physiognomy influence or prejudice a writer of the voice has no such mask to uncover. This deception is often at the bottom of the deepest rogues' voice. It is controlled by no such outward physical expressions. All this is discounted to zero to a blind man.

MRS. BIRCH RECOVERED.

Will Not See Grandson and Will Close Up Her Home.

HSVILLE, Ky., March 5.—Mrs. v. Birch, the central figure of the poisoning case, is much improved, acting on the advice of her physician, will leave early this week for Morristown, where she will visit her sister, Joe McCawley. At the conclusion of that there she will go East to a quiet place, where she will spend the winter part of the summer.

"It is absolutely necessary, Mrs. Birch will not be present at the trial of Anderson, Birch Cooper, who is under arrest on the charge of placing the strain of the trial would be too great for her to bear and the physicians have sided strongly against her being subjected to any excitement.

Birch left the house of her son today for the first time since she was there from her own home. Tomorrow she will visit her sister, Joe McCawley. At the conclusion of that there she will go East to a quiet place, where she will spend the winter part of the summer.

SPANISH CABINET
RECEIVES FRANCIS

President of World's Fair Hopes to Leave Madrid Tonight for Paris.

MADRID, March 5.—President Francis of the St. Louis World's Fair received here today by King Alfonso's ministers. The premier called them together in special session at his office and there Mr. Francis was introduced to the others by the Minister of Agriculture, whom he met yesterday.

Mr. Francis spoke enthusiastically in an effort to win the cabinet's support for a greater Spanish display at the World's Fair and it is believed he had as great success as attended his remarkable short stops in London and Paris.

When he arrived here Minister Hardy met him at the station. Then Secretary Hardie of the United States legation escorted him to the ministry of agriculture, where he talked for an hour with the minister.

He dined later with Minister and Mrs. Hardy. Mr. Francis will leave here tonight, returning to Paris, where tomorrow and Saturday nights he will be a guest at banquets. He will start Sunday for Berlin to see Emperor William.

SALT LAKE PART FRESH NOW

Railroad Fill Across Famous Utah Lake Entirely Changes Character of One Section of It.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SALT LAKE, Utah, March 5.—The northern part of Great Salt Lake will be a body of fresh water in summer. Today it was discovered that half of the bay is fresh water. After the bay loses its salt lake, for a half mile from the shore on the north end, will begin to turn fresh.

The transformation is due to the gigantic undertaking of the Southern Pacific, which will run trains across the north end of the lake. The "mill" on which the road is built virtually cuts off the Bear River Bay from the remainder of the lake, only a broad channel being left open, through which the waters of Bear river flow. The continuous flow of fresh water from the river, combined with the prevention of a free mingling of the waters of the bay and the lake proper, freshens the water.

NOBLE WOMAN IN A DEATH MYSTERY

Mrs. Stanley, Found Unconscious With Dead Officer, Had Aristocratic Lineage.

DENVER, Colo., March 5.—Mrs. Gertrude Stanley, who was found in an unconscious condition in the same room in which lay the dead body of Maj. Marshall P. Hurd yesterday, proved to be a woman of aristocratic lineage.

She is a granddaughter of Lord Koroast of Inverness, Scotland. Her mother was Lady Allen, by a second marriage, became the mother of Sir James Grant of Inverness, one of the most eminent physicians of the Dominion of Canada, who is knighted by Queen Victoria.

Mrs. Stanley, it is said, was three married. Her first husband and their four children died of the black diphtheria in 1892.

Several years later she married a resident of Washington, D. C., who was in government service. A year or so later she and her husband were in a hotel at Montevideo, N. Y., when Mrs. Stanley, who was a government clerk, her relatives disapproved of the union.

Mrs. Stanley came to Denver to live out a year ago. Mr. Stanley died of diphtheria and left her a considerable fortune. She is an inmate of the old soldiers' home at Montevideo, Colo., where she has a room.

PAINE CHIEF FIGURE IN BURDICK MYSTERY

Young Woman "Chum" of Murdered Man Had Key to His House—Her Home Is Searched and She Is Prostrated in Bed.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
BUFFALO, N. Y., March 5.—Mrs. Gertrude Paine is the chief figure today in the Burdick murder mystery. Her home is the first of that of Red Jacket Club members to be searched by the police. Others may be searched today.

"Are you satisfied," asked the Post-Dispatch correspondent of the day Cusack, "with Mrs. Paine's account of her movements on Thursday night, and with her statement that she was not near the Burdick home that night?"

"I won't answer that question," was Mrs. Cusack's reply.

Supt. Bull of the police department says he has the motive and the murderer within his reach.

Mrs. Paine is the wife of a Batavia dentist. She is the woman whose picture was found in Burdick's den the day after the murder, and who later admitted that she had talked with Burdick over the phone the afternoon of the day the crime was committed. The police descended upon the Paine home and searched it from cellar to garret. They found no evidence which would serve to connect her with the case more closely than she is at present.

Denied Going to Burdick's.
Mrs. Paine denied that she had ever gone to Mr. Burdick's house to meet him after the murder.

It is reported that important evidence pertaining to Mrs. Paine is being withheld. Since the discovery of Burdick's body last Friday morning Mrs. Paine has not left her home except on one occasion, when she was taken before District Attorney Coatsworth and Chief Cusack.

Mrs. Paine has refused herself to all callers except the detectives. Her husband, who has made three visits to this city from his home in Batavia in the last few days, has said that she is a woman who is prostrated by the shock, and that a trained nurse was in attendance upon her.

Mrs. Paine is a lively, comely woman and dresses stylishly. She was frequently seen with Arthur Pennell and with Mr. Burdick.

O'CONNELL OFF FOR AMERICA

New Rector of the Catholic University at Washington on Way to Take Charge.

ROME, March 5.—The Rev. Dennis R. O'Connell, rector of the Catholic University at Washington, started for the United States today, by way of Paris. The Very Rev. John Zahn, principal of the congregation of the Holy Cross at Notre Dame, Ind., left here for the French capital on the train which is conveying Father O'Connell to that city.

Father Zahn has been negotiating with the French and Vatican authorities on the subject of the members of the religious orders remaining in France.

It is asserted that if the laws are strictly applied about 20,000 persons will be expelled from France. Father Zahn is now going to Paris to make provision for those who belong to his order in France, and to make arrangements for the transfer of them to various colleges and parishes in the United States and Canada.

Fire Caused Panic Among Guests.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Two hundred guests in the Sturtevant House at Broadway and Twenty-ninth street were greatly excited early today by a fire in the basement of the building, which filled the halls with smoke.

Men, women and children rushed to the sidewalk and one woman, who appeared at the second-story window with a baby in her arms, tried to jump to the fire escape.

The fire was caused by a gas stove in the kitchen. The property damage was about $100. The property damage was about $100.

Collectors' Bargains.

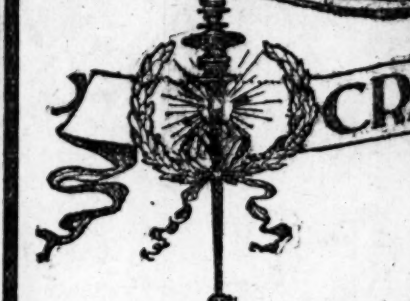

How constantly one hears that there are no bargains nowadays! A bookbinder, who has been collecting for some time, has just received a lot of old books, which he is offering at a very low price.

These books are of various kinds, including old novels, histories, and scientific works. They are all in good condition, and are offered at a price that is well below their value.

Those who are interested in old books should go to the bookbinder's shop at once, as the stock is limited.

SAJOUS' THEORY STIRS PHYSICIANS

His Discovery of New Vital Organs Upsets All Medical Tradition.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—Dr. C. E. M. Sajous has startled the medical fraternity by the announcement of a discovery which, if it proves good, will completely overthrow the present theory and practice of medicine.

He declares that organs which physicians have always regarded as vestiges of those that have no functions are the most important in the human anatomy.

Two little organs just above the kidneys, which physicians have from the earliest times looked upon as being as useless as the vermiform appendix, are raised by Dr. Sajous to the first place in the human make-up.

These organs, the physician says he has discovered after nearly twenty years of investigation, are the medium for conveying the supply of oxygen into the blood, and that they, not the lungs, are the organs which perform this function. As the treatment and understanding of disease depends upon the condition of these organs and the organs of the brain to which they are attached, the new discovery, Dr. Sajous claims, will revolutionize medicine.

Physicians who are discussing the discovery say that if it is worth anything it is the greatest discovery since the discovery of the microscope. Dr. Sajous' standing as an eminent editor of medical literature and a leading practitioner of the city, has given to the announcement of the discovery a cordial reception.

In a dozen laboratories investigations have been started to test Dr. Sajous' theory. Conservative physicians are inclined to regard it with doubt, but the discovery and exposure of the vestiges of other bodies have proclaimed the discovery the greatest of the decade.

"If Dr. Sajous' discovery had been made in Paris by a physician of his standing," said a French doctor today, "it would be filled with details of it, and the physicians of the whole United States would be engaged in testing the merit of it."

Dr. Sajous made the announcement of his discovery before the Philadelphia Medical Society in a carefully prepared paper. The Ductless Glands and the Importance of the First Importance in the Vital Functions, and Their Relations to Diseases and Therapeutics.

The two small organs above the kidneys, known as the supra-renal glands, he said, are connected with an organ in the brain known as the pituitary. These organs, he claimed, have the most intimate connection with the human system. Their secretions, he said, are carried directly to the lungs, and these secretions it is that take up the oxygen breathed in. This process is a new process, which he has named "adrenoxin," and this, he says, becomes mixed with the fluid part of the blood and courses through all the blood channels of the body, even the most minute.

The pituitary organ, Dr. Sajous asserted, is of the first importance in determining the healthfulness of a person. It is, he said, the governing center of the glands, and practically regulates the course of life through the veins. When it is in a weakened condition, then the subject offers a splendid mark for the invasion of disease.

This organ, he said, is the one on which all disease-producing poisons and other poisons act. Some stimulated, other depressed it. Any poison which stimulates increases the supply of oxygen. This causes increase in the circulation of the blood, and the symptoms which follow are "fever." Weak pituitary means a poor supply of oxygen and hence a weak vitality.

Consumption, he said, is not primarily a disease of the lungs. Weakness of the pituitary permits the ingress of the tuberculous germs and the germs attack the lungs. The same, he said, holds true of cholera, cholera infantum and epidemic diseases.

Drugs, he said, act on the pituitary. Dr. Sajous began his investigations for the purpose of discovering how oxygen acts on the blood. His conclusion is:

"The supra-renal glands can be considered as the key not only to tissue respiration, but also to the functions of all other organs now classified as ductless glands."

HERPICIDE'S MISSION.

New Remedy That Destroys the Dandruff Germs.

Nothing is more annoying to men or women of middle age when they notice that their hair is growing thinner, when they must admit that the first indications of baldness have commenced to appear. Many would give a thousand dollars and more for a remedy with which to preserve their natural head-dress. However, they don't need to. Newbro's Herpicide removes the effect of dandruff by destroying the cause, the only dandruff cure that actually destroys the dandruff germ. Sold by leading druggists. Send for a stamp for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Judge & Delph Co., Raboteau & Co., Wolf-Wilson Drug Co., Special Agents.

Champion and His Proposed Opponent to Conclude Ar- rangements for Their Fight.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 3.—James Corbett and James J. Jeffries will meet here today to sign articles for a match to be fought by them some time in June before a San Francisco athletic club for the championship of the world.

Corbett has been here for a day or two and has arranged all the conditions the match and drawn up the armistice agreement along the lines formulated by the New York meeting Sunday.

One of the principal conditions stipulated is that no offer of less than a $1,000 purse shall be considered. Word from Princeton states that the club is now trying to consider a guarantee of that magnitude, but will go as high as 70 per cent of the gate receipts.

HORGAN MATCHES WITH JESS LEO

Pool Experts to Meet in Sh Handicap Match Ending

Friday.

John Morgan, the only pool expert in West who has retained "KID" Hueston a championship game, has been made to play Jess Leon, the St. Louis expert, on Broadway, Thursday and Friday nights.

The match is a handicap affair, controversial pool, Morgan playing 250 points, Leon's 200, 150 against 100 each night.

Morgan was willing to play with Hueston again and believed that he could win the title from him, but the champion is going to the Springs, where he is scheduled to appear in some big matches.

Hueston won the title from John Kring, the Chicago player, at Las Vegas last December and successfully defended it against Jess Leon in a 200-point match between Hueston's Kring ended Wednesday night with Hueston winning 200 to 150.

Hueston won the title from John Kring, the Chicago player, at Las Vegas last December and successfully defended it against Jess Leon in a 200-point match between Hueston's Kring ended Wednesday night with Hueston winning 200 to 150.

The last two sections were played Wednesday afternoon and night at Broadway and at both performances the crowd was so large that the first frame was broken. In the afternoon both men played sensational pool and the crowd was so large that in spite of this Kling beat him to the top of the billiard table and in trying to make up the 14 points he needed Kling's combination shots were little if wonderful, but he missed breaking on the second shot. He showed the crowd's apathy, and once he got a 14 into the bunch the balls would quickly come back to him. He missed and played some shots that an amateur would not have done if it had been his turn and haste.

On the night game Kling made a great effort to pin Hueston down until he could get a combination shot. He missed but he got 8 balls to complete his 400, the 14 player pulled and ran two frames, but he could not get a combination shot on his break, leaving a combination which he could not make.

Immediately after the game Kling played a pool game with the Chicago National League team on the traveling trip to Los Angeles, Cal.

SPECULATION WAS

—The Receipts of All Grain
Continue Large.

Grain.

The speculative side of this morning were about as poor excuses as could be imagined. Not a commission man or broker appeared to have a fresh order on hand and the average professional of the pit didn't know whether to buy or sell, so that there was nothing doing. Changes in value were inconsequential. The market and the market indicated nothing save dead calm. It was a little better than yesterday, but it was still a dead sea, a water that could stir up traders. Bad weather, by strengthening corn, held wheat and oats steady.

WHEAT—Although the low price on yesterday's curb was not touched at the opening of today's market, the first trading was at a higher level. A few orders came in for May and but little change occurred for some time subsequently, when prices advanced slightly. The feeling was somewhat stronger on corn market than on wheat, but no trading will more.

As general conditions were better, the weather was favorable everywhere in this section. At Chicago, where the bureau of Cincinnati Price Current said that maintained the good promise and the cables reported the good crops.

from $\frac{1}{4}$ c to $\frac{1}{4}$ c lower. Receipts were well maintained here at 42,100 bu. against 18,900 bu. one year ago, but a further decrease of 17,000 bu. in the local stock reported. At Minneapolis and Duluth 297 cars were in, against 226 cars a year ago.

CORN—The weather was entirely too moist throughout the corn country, and a shut-off of the movement of grain caused speculative traders to go slow in the market. The price of corn advanced in the buying, but it was enough stronger on the weather and a firmer view of the future that it declined 1¢ (advance) for May, though later declined to 41¢ and then reacted to 41½¢. Receipts for May were 1,000,000 bushels, or 1,000,000 bu. ahead of a year ago, and the stock had increased 2,600 bu. The Liverpool market was 4½¢ higher.

OATS—The feed was weak in the future market and there were sellers at 25½¢ for May and 24½¢ for July, but no trading, Rice.

Trade Topics.

In its weekly summing up of crop conditions, the Cincinnati Price Current says:

"The wheat crop maintains a good promise. There has been little injury from freezing and thawing. The Kansas crop is the most promising. Ground is wet in all sections. The hard frosts are hardening the interior grain movement. Hog packing for weeks were $2.00 head, against 41.00 for same week last year."

Larger clearances of wheat and flour and corn from both coasts should be reported this week than the 2,657,000 bu. in wheat and flour and 2,384,000 bu. corn of last week.

At J. A. Baldwin of the law firm of Hill & Baldwin was present. He was the first to speak, telling of their dinner at St. Denis the other evening and the story about an old Irish woman in Manhattan who was called upon by a census enumerator and asked questions about almost everything she ever knew, and others about many things she had never known the time and trouble to learn. Among other things, she said:

“I know, Mr. Baldwin, the enumerator asked: ‘Have you any children, madam?’

“I said: ‘No, sir.’

“He said: ‘You have a whole lot of them—two living, two dead, and one tacin’ school in Brooklyn.’”
